George Curgenven's time at Lloyd's

I have been able to establish that Mr Curgenven became an Annual Subscriber at Lloyd's in 1863. Age 26 Annual Subscribers in those days were non-underwriting brokers or merchants – people who brought business to the (underwriting) members of Lloyd's.

Mr Curgenven became a Member of Lloyd's in 1886. Age 49.

A member could be described as 'any person underwriting in his own name, or empowering another to underwrite for him'. As Mr Curgenven was entitled to a Substitute, he may not have been accepting risks himself but instead allowing his Substitute to accept risks on his behalf.

His membership of Lloyd's ended in 1891. Age 54

H. Information Officer, Lloyd's
